Election/Restriction

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-18, drawn to a package and an end cap.

Group II, claim(s) 19, drawn to a method for fabricating a package.

Group III, claim(s) 20-38, drawn to a product container.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I, II and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical features of Group I is a package including a sleeve having an opening with a locking tab folded inward into the opening and an end cap having an outer surface with a channel that engages the locking tab when the end cap is inserted into the opening. The special technical features of Group II is a method for fabricating a package including the steps of cutting and scoring a sleeve blank to create first and second panels and a glue flap with each panel includes a locking tab, a first end cap having a channel that engages the locking tab when the first end cap is inserted into a first end of the sleeve, loading a product into the sleeve and a second end cap having a channel that engages the locking tab when the second end cap is inserted into a second end of the sleeve. The special technical features of Group III is a product container including an elongated sleeve having an opening with a pair of opposed resilient locking tabs and an end cap having an outwardly extending rim adapted to abut the peripheral edge of the opening to limit the extent to which the end cap can extend into the sleeve and the opposed resilient locking tabs are dimensioned and configured to releasably engage the peripheral wall of the end cap to prevent removal of the end cap from the sleeve. The special technical relationship that is common among Groups I, II and III for example a package comprising a sleeve having an opening with a locking tab and an end cap having an outer surface that engages the locking tab when the end cap is inserted into the opening is not a special technical feature since such feature as claimed by applicant lack novelty over the photographs of Lindt & Sprungli chocolate package (attached) and hence lacks unity of invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
